

BIBLIOMONDO

Bibliomondo originated in 2011 at BiblioteCaNova Isolotto due to the contribution of the volunteer association Lib(e)ramente-Pollicino; an activity of literacy dedicated to foreigners.

Bibliomondo is currently in collaboration with Libraries of the City of Florence and integrating Italian courses with the promotion of plurilingualism open to all territories.

ACCESS TO THE LIBRARIES OF THE CITY OF FLORENCE IS FREE AND OPEN TO EVERYONE.

It is necessary to exhibit a valid identification document to sign up for services. Participation in activities is free, and for some, enrollment is required. For more information about Bibliomondo, please contact the library of reference.

ACTIVITIES

Migration stories

A didactic path aimed to express the real migration experience directly narrated by the protagonists

Borrowed words

A group of on site native speaking volunteers committed to encourage reading aloud

Spoken Italian

A conversation group of students with different levels of Italian

MAMMA LINGUA

The affiliated libraries promote the National project Mamma Lingua. Storie per tutti, nessuno escluso of the Associazione Italiana Biblioteche and the Oblate library. Working as a point of reference for Regione Toscana.

The project was created in collaboration with educational services of the City of Florence along with other state schools within the region. Suitcases full of books in Italian and other languages, silent books and books with symbols are borrowed from the libraries.

Mamma Lingua aims to highlight the value of bilingualism, mother language and promotion to read in families with a particular focus on preschoolers.
